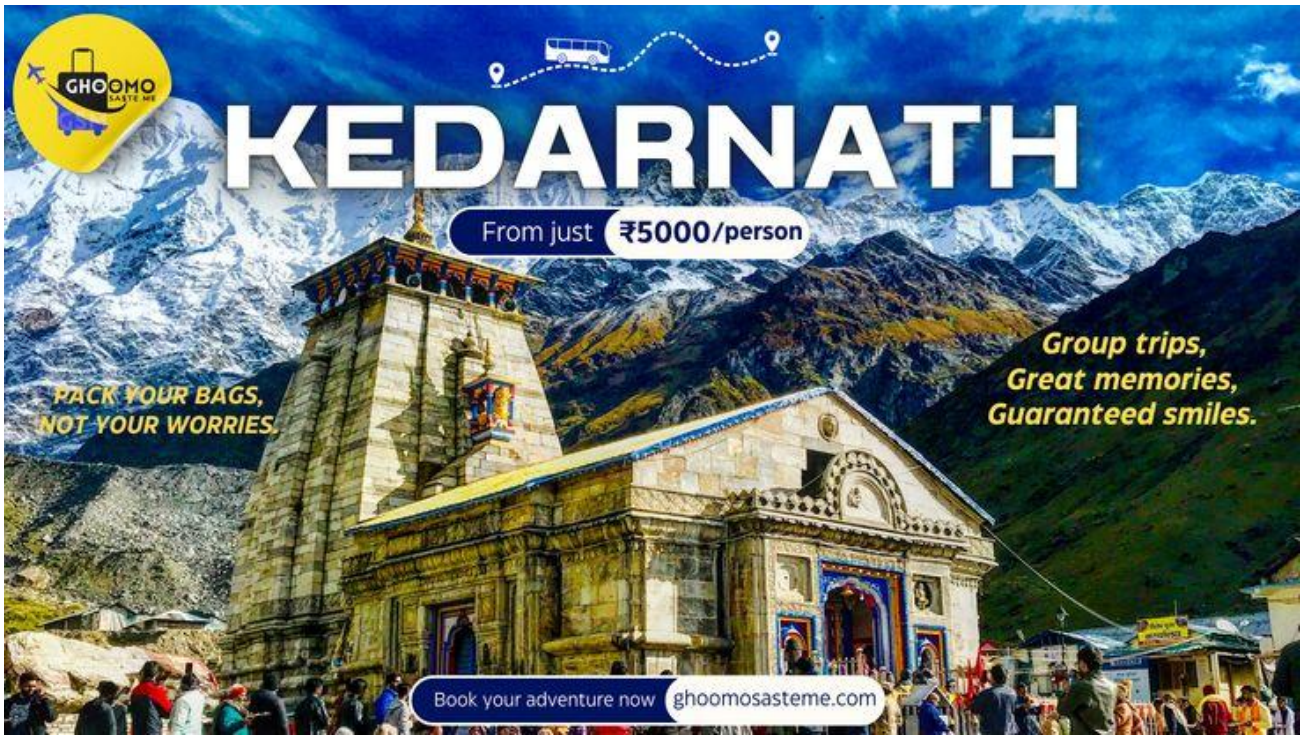
Kedarnath Yatra Package | online registration for kedarnath yatra 2026

Call / WhatsApp: 9259810571 to book your Kedarnath Yatra Package today. Visit the sacred Kedarnath Temple in the Himalayas with a comfortable, well-planned tour including travel, stay, and trek guidance. Enjoy a smooth spiritual journey and experience the divine blessings of Lord Shiva.



Kedarnath Yatra Tour Package list

Category	Price
Delhi to Kedarnath Package	₹5000
Haridwar to Kedarnath Package	₹5000
Rishikesh to Kedarnath Package	₹5000
Dehradun to Kedarnath Package	₹5000

Category	Price
Mumbai to Kedarnath Package	₹5000
Bangalore to Kedarnath Package	₹5000
Pune to Kedarnath Package	₹5000
Hyderabad to Kedarnath Package	₹5000
Ahmedabad to Kedarnath Package	₹5000
Jaipur to Kedarnath Package	₹5000

1. Kedarnath Yatra Package

Q1: What is included in a Kedarnath Yatra package?

A: A standard Kedarnath Yatra package typically includes accommodation (hotels/guesthouses), meals (breakfast and dinner), transportation from base city to Gaurikund, pony/palki/helicopter options for the trek, a certified guide, and VIP darshan assistance. Some premium packages also include porter services and travel insurance.

Q2: How many days does a Kedarnath Yatra package cover?

A: Most Kedarnath Yatra packages are designed for 4 to 7 days. A basic 4-day package covers travel to Haridwar/Rishikesh, journey to Gaurikund, the Kedarnath trek and darshan, and return. Extended 6-7 day packages include sightseeing at Badrinath or other Char Dham destinations.

Q3: What is the best time to book a Kedarnath Yatra package?

A: The Kedarnath temple opens in late April or early May and closes in November (Diwali period). The best time to book is between May-June and September-October. Avoid July-August due to heavy monsoon rains and landslide risks. Booking 2-3 months in advance is strongly recommended. For Kedarnath Yatra booking assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q4: Are Kedarnath Yatra packages available for solo travelers?

A: Yes, many tour operators offer Kedarnath Yatra packages for solo travelers. Shared group departures are the most cost-effective option. Solo travelers can join group packages departing from major cities like Delhi, Haridwar, Rishikesh, or Dehradun with ease.

Q5: What is the difference between a budget and premium Kedarnath Yatra package?

A: Budget packages (Rs.5,000-Rs.10,000) include basic accommodation, shared transport, and simple meals. Premium packages (Rs.15,000-Rs.30,000+) offer luxury hotels, private vehicles, helicopter rides, VIP darshan passes, better food, and personal guides. Choose based on comfort level and budget.

Q6: Is helicopter service included in Kedarnath Yatra packages?

A: Some premium packages include helicopter service from Phata, Sirsi, or Guptkashi to Kedarnath, which takes only 7-10 minutes compared to a 16-18 km trek. Helicopter packages are usually priced separately and need advance booking due to high demand. Budget packages offer pony or palki alternatives.

Q7: Can I customize a Kedarnath Yatra package?

A: Yes, most reputable tour operators allow full customization. You can choose the number of days, type of accommodation, mode of transport (private or shared), add-on pilgrimages to Badrinath or Gangotri, and even request special puja arrangements at the temple as per your preference. For customized Kedarnath Yatra packages or booking assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q8: What is the cost of a Kedarnath Yatra package per person?

A: Package costs vary widely: budget group packages start from Rs.4,500-Rs.8,000 per person; mid-range packages cost Rs.10,000-Rs.18,000; premium/helicopter packages range from Rs.20,000-Rs.50,000+. Prices depend on departure city, duration, accommodation quality, and services included.

Q9: Are meals provided in Kedarnath Yatra packages?

A: Most Kedarnath Yatra packages include breakfast and dinner (MAP - Modified American Plan). Lunch is usually not included as pilgrims are on the move during trekking hours. There are many dhabas and stalls en route to Kedarnath offering affordable and nutritious meals.

Q10: How do I choose a reliable Kedarnath Yatra package operator?

A: Look for operators registered with the Uttarakhand Tourism Department. Check for IATA or TAFI membership, read customer reviews on Google and TripAdvisor, verify their cancellation/refund policy, ensure they provide 24/7 support, and confirm all inclusions in writing before making any payment.

2. Kedarnath Yatra

Q1: What is Kedarnath Yatra and why is it significant?

A: Kedarnath Yatra is a sacred Hindu pilgrimage to the Kedarnath Temple, one of the twelve Jyotirlingas of Lord Shiva, located at an altitude of 3,583 meters in Rudraprayag district of Uttarakhand. It is part of the Char Dham Yatra and is considered one of the holiest pilgrimages in India, attracting lakhs of devotees each year.

Q2: How do I register for Kedarnath Yatra?

A: Registration for Kedarnath Yatra is mandatory and can be done online at the official Char Dham Devasthanam Board website or through approved travel agents. You need to provide ID proof, a recent photograph, and fill in health-related details. Biometric registration is done at designated centers before the trek begins.

Q3: What documents are required for Kedarnath Yatra?

A: You need a valid government-issued photo ID (Aadhaar card, passport, or voter ID), a yatra registration slip, a recent passport-size photograph, and a medical fitness certificate if you are above 50 years of age or have existing health conditions. These documents are checked at multiple checkpoints. For help with Kedarnath Yatra registration or travel booking, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q4: What is the total distance of the Kedarnath Yatra trek?

A: The main trekking route from Gaurikund to Kedarnath Temple is approximately 16-18 km one way. Including the return journey, the total trek covers around 32-36 km. Alternatively, a helicopter service from Phata or Sirsi covers the journey in about 7-10 minutes each way.

Q5: What are the major stops during Kedarnath Yatra?

A: Key stops include Haridwar/Rishikesh (entry point), Devprayag, Rudraprayag, Guptkashi, Sonprayag, and Gaurikund (trek starting point). Along the trek route, you pass through Jungle Chatti, Bheembali, Lincholi, and Base Camp before reaching the Kedarnath Temple.

Q6: What are the fitness requirements for Kedarnath Yatra?

A: Kedarnath Yatra involves a 16-18 km mountain trek at high altitude. Basic cardiovascular fitness is essential. Pilgrims are advised to do regular walking for at least 2-3 weeks before the yatra, stay well hydrated, avoid alcohol and heavy food, and carry altitude sickness medication as a precaution.

Q7: Is Kedarnath Yatra safe for elderly and children?

A: Yes, with proper precautions. Pony (horse), palki (doli/palanquin), and helicopter services are available for elderly pilgrims and children. Children below 5 years and those above 60 years are generally advised to use helicopter or palki services. Medical camps are stationed along the route for emergencies. For Kedarnath Yatra booking or travel assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q8: What should I pack for Kedarnath Yatra?

A: Essential items include warm woolen clothes and a heavy jacket (temperatures drop to 2-5 degrees C at night), raincoat or poncho, trekking shoes with good grip, first-aid kit with altitude sickness medicines, water bottle, energy snacks, torch/flashlight, walking stick, sunscreen, and personal medications.

Q9: What is the weather like during Kedarnath Yatra season?

A: During May-June, temperatures range from 5-15 degrees C during the day and can drop below freezing at night. September-October sees slightly cooler conditions with early snowfall possible in October. Monsoon season (July-August) brings heavy rain, landslide risks, and poor visibility, making trekking difficult and dangerous.

Q10: Can I do Kedarnath Yatra without a guide?

A: Yes, Kedarnath Yatra can be done independently as the trail is well-marked and managed by local authorities. However, hiring a local guide is highly recommended for first-time visitors for safety, navigation in bad weather, and insights into religious practices and the rich history of the temple.

3. Kedarnath Ticket Booking

Q1: How do I book a Kedarnath darshan ticket online?

A: Kedarnath darshan tickets (yatra passes) can be booked online at the official Uttarakhand Char Dham Devasthanam Board website or through government-approved travel portals. You need to create an account, select your travel date, fill in pilgrim details, and complete payment online to get your pass.

Q2: Is prior ticket booking mandatory for Kedarnath?

A: Yes, registration/ticket booking has been made mandatory for Kedarnath Yatra by the Uttarakhand government to manage the footfall and ensure pilgrim safety. Without a valid yatra registration slip, entry is not permitted at the check posts at Sonprayag and Gaurikund.

Q3: What is the ticket price for Kedarnath darshan?

A: The basic yatra registration fee is nominal (usually Rs.50-Rs.200 per person). However, VIP darshan passes for priority entry that skip the general queue are priced higher (around Rs.1,500-Rs.3,000). Helicopter ticket prices range from Rs.3,000-Rs.8,000 per person one way depending on the departure point.

Q4: Can I book a Kedarnath ticket offline?

A: Yes, offline registration is available at designated yatra registration centers located at Haridwar, Rishikesh, Guptkashi, Sonprayag, and Phata. You need to carry original ID proof and photographs. It is advisable to book online in advance as peak-season slots fill up very quickly. For Kedarnath Yatra booking or travel assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q5: How far in advance should I book Kedarnath tickets?

A: Booking 1-3 months in advance is strongly recommended, especially for the peak season (May-June and September). Helicopter tickets in particular have very limited availability and sell out fast. For general yatra registration, at least 2-4 weeks advance booking is advisable to secure your preferred travel date.

Q6: What happens if I need to cancel my Kedarnath ticket booking?

A: Cancellation policies vary by booking platform and service type. General yatra registrations may be cancelled and rescheduled online with a small fee. Helicopter tickets typically have stricter cancellation policies with partial or no refunds within 24-48 hours of departure. Always read the terms and conditions carefully before booking.

Q7: Is there a daily cap on the number of pilgrims at Kedarnath?

A: Yes, the Uttarakhand government enforces a daily pilgrim cap at Kedarnath Temple to prevent overcrowding and ensure safety. The limit typically ranges from 12,000 to 15,000 pilgrims per day. Once the daily quota is filled, no further registrations are issued for that date, so early booking is absolutely critical. For Kedarnath Yatra booking or travel assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q8: Can I book a helicopter ticket for Kedarnath online?

A: Yes, helicopter tickets for Kedarnath can be booked online through IRCTC's official portal (heliyatra.irctc.co.in) or through approved private helicopter operators like Pawan Hans, Aryan Aviation, and Pinnacle Air. It is strongly advised to book through official channels only to avoid fraud.

Q9: What ID proof is required at the time of Kedarnath ticket booking?

A: Aadhaar card is the most commonly accepted and recommended ID proof for Kedarnath booking. Other accepted IDs include passport, driving license, voter ID card, and PAN card. For foreign nationals, a passport and valid Indian visa are required. All documents must match the details provided during online registration.

Q10: What if I miss my Kedarnath darshan slot due to weather or delays?

A: Kedarnath is prone to sudden weather changes, and authorities may temporarily close the route. In such cases, most registration portals allow rescheduling of missed slots to the next available date. Keep your registered mobile number active as authorities send real-time alerts and updates about route conditions.

4. Kedarnath Trip Cost

Q1: What is the total cost of a Kedarnath trip from Delhi?

A: A budget trip from Delhi to the sacred Kedarnath Temple typically costs Rs.6,000–Rs.10,000 per person, including bus/train fare, accommodation, meals, and basic trekking. A mid-range trip ranges from Rs.12,000–Rs.20,000 with better hotels and private transport, while premium trips with helicopter rides can cost Rs.25,000–Rs.50,000+ per person. For Kedarnath Yatra booking or travel assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q2: What are the major expenses in a Kedarnath trip?

A: Major expenses include transport (bus/train/taxi), accommodation at Guptkashi/Gaurikund/Kedarnath base camp, meals, trek porter/pony/palki costs (Rs.2,500-Rs.6,000), helicopter charges (Rs.3,000-Rs.8,000 per leg), temple donation, VIP darshan fee, and miscellaneous expenses like rainwear, medicines, and guide fees.

Q3: How much does it cost to trek to Kedarnath on foot?

A: If you choose to trek the full 16-18 km route on foot, the direct trek cost is essentially free beyond accommodation and food. Budget Rs.1,500-Rs.3,000 for accommodation along the route (tent/basic rooms at Lincholi/Bheem Bali), Rs.500-Rs.800 per day for meals, and Rs.500-Rs.1,000 for a walking stick and basic gear.

Q4: What is the cost of pony/horse ride to Kedarnath?

A: A pony ride from Gaurikund to the sacred Kedarnath Temple (one way, 16 km) costs approximately Rs.2,000–Rs.3,500 per person. A round trip typically costs Rs.4,000–Rs.6,500. Rates are fixed by the government each season and displayed at booking counters at Gaurikund. Prices may vary slightly depending on availability and the travel season. For Kedarnath Yatra booking or travel assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q5: What is the palki (doli) cost for Kedarnath Yatra?

A: A palki (doli/palanquin) carried by 4 bearers from Gaurikund to Kedarnath costs approximately Rs.5,000-Rs.8,000 one way. A round trip ranges from Rs.10,000-Rs.15,000. Palki is ideal for elderly pilgrims and those unable to trek. It is advisable to book palki services in advance through registered operators.

Q6: How much should I budget for accommodation during Kedarnath Yatra?

A: Accommodation costs vary by location: Haridwar/Rishikesh - Rs.800-Rs.3,000 per night; Guptkashi - Rs.600-Rs.2,500 per night; Gaurikund - Rs.400-Rs.1,000 per night (basic dharamshalas); Kedarnath base camp - Rs.200-Rs.800 per night (tent or basic shelter). Total accommodation budget for a 5-day trip ranges from Rs.2,000-Rs.10,000.

Q7: Is there a budget way to complete Kedarnath Yatra under Rs.5,000?

A: Yes, on a tight budget: take a government GMOU/UPSRTC bus from Haridwar to Gaurikund (Rs.300-Rs.600), trek on foot (free), stay in dharamshalas (Rs.100-Rs.300 per night), and eat at community langars and dhabas (Rs.100-Rs.200 per meal). Total 4-day budget can be kept under Rs.4,000-Rs.5,000 with basic comforts.

Q8: How much does the Kedarnath helicopter ride cost in 2024-25?

A: Helicopter fares for Kedarnath Temple (2024–25 season) range from Rs.3,500–Rs.5,500 per person one way from Phata, Sirsi, or Guptkashi. Round trip helicopter fares usually cost Rs.7,000–Rs.11,000. Prices are regulated by the Government of Uttarakhand. Booking through IRCTC's official HeliYatra portal helps ensure correct pricing and avoids middlemen or touts. For Kedarnath Yatra booking or travel assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q9: Are there any hidden charges in Kedarnath trip packages?

A: Common hidden charges to watch out for include GST (5% on tour packages), porter/pony charges not included in base package price, VIP darshan fees, medical check-up fees at check posts, personal meal expenses beyond included meals, and any additional night stay due to weather delays. Always ask for a fully itemized quotation.

Q10: How much money should I carry in cash for Kedarnath Yatra?

A: Carry at least Rs.5,000-Rs.8,000 in cash as ATMs at Sonprayag and Gaurikund may have limited cash. Cash is needed for ponies, porters, dhabas, dharamshalas, shopping, tips, and emergency expenses. There are no ATMs beyond Gaurikund, and digital payments may not work in remote areas due to poor network connectivity.

5. Delhi to Kedarnath Package

Q1: What are the travel options from Delhi to Kedarnath?

A: From Delhi, you can reach Kedarnath via road (Delhi to Haridwar to Rishikesh to Rudraprayag to Guptkashi to Sonprayag to Gaurikund to Kedarnath trek), by train to Haridwar/Rishikesh and then road, or by flight to Dehradun (Jolly Grant Airport) followed by a road journey to Gaurikund, and finally the 16-18 km trek or helicopter ride.

Q2: How many days is ideal for a Delhi to Kedarnath package?

A: An ideal package from Delhi to the sacred Kedarnath Temple is 5–7 days: Day 1 – Delhi to Haridwar / Rishikesh; Day 2 – Haridwar to Guptkashi; Day 3 – Guptkashi to Gaurikund / Kedarnath base; Day 4 – Kedarnath trek and darshan; Day 5 – Return to Gaurikund; Day 6 – Return to Haridwar; Day 7 – Haridwar to Delhi. For Kedarnath Yatra booking or travel assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q3: What is the cost of a Delhi to Kedarnath package?

A: Delhi to Kedarnath tour packages typically start at Rs.7,000-Rs.12,000 per person for group budget packages (5-6 days). Mid-range packages cost Rs.15,000-Rs.25,000 with AC accommodation and private transfers. Premium packages with helicopter rides are priced at Rs.30,000-Rs.60,000 per person for a 5-night/6-day itinerary.

Q4: Is there a direct bus from Delhi to Kedarnath?

A: There is no direct bus to Kedarnath itself, but GMOU, UPSRTC, and private operators run regular buses from Delhi's ISBT Kashmere Gate to Haridwar, Rishikesh, and Guptkashi. From Guptkashi or Sonprayag, shared jeeps/taxis connect to Gaurikund, from where the trek to Kedarnath begins.

Q5: What is the best route from Delhi to Kedarnath by road?

A: The most commonly used route is: Delhi to Haridwar (230 km, 5 hrs) to Rishikesh (253 km, 6 hrs) to Devprayag to Rudraprayag to Guptkashi (455 km, 10–12 hrs) to Sonprayag to Gaurikund (500 km, 12–14 hrs from Delhi). The total road distance from Delhi to Gaurikund is approximately 470–500 km. For Kedarnath Yatra booking or travel assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q6: Can I take a train from Delhi to reach Kedarnath?

A: Yes, take a train from Delhi to Haridwar (3-4 hours by express trains like Shatabdi or Jan Shatabdi) or to Rishikesh. From there, hire a taxi or take a shared jeep to Sonprayag/Gaurikund. Popular trains from Delhi to Haridwar include the Nanda Devi Express, Mussoorie Express, and Dehradun Shatabdi.

Q7: Are Delhi to Kedarnath packages available all year?

A: No. Kedarnath temple opens only during the pilgrimage season, which runs from late April/early May to November (Diwali). Delhi to Kedarnath packages are available only during this period. The temple remains closed during winter due to heavy snowfall. Check exact opening dates announced by the Kedarnath temple committee each year.

Q8: Which is better - group package or private package from Delhi to Kedarnath?

A: Group packages are more economical (Rs.7,000-Rs.12,000) and are great for solo travelers or families on a budget. Private packages (Rs.20,000-Rs.40,000) offer personalized itineraries, flexible timings, private vehicles, and premium accommodation. For a comfortable experience, private packages are recommended for families and senior citizens.

Q9: What is the nearest airport to Kedarnath from Delhi?

A: The nearest airport is Jolly Grant Airport in Dehradun, approximately 250 km from Kedarnath. From Dehradun, you can hire a taxi to Sonprayag/Gaurikund (8-9 hours by road). IndiGo and Air India operate regular flights from Delhi to Dehradun. Dehradun is also well connected by helicopter services to Phata near Kedarnath.

Q10: Do Delhi to Kedarnath packages include VIP darshan?

A: Many mid-range and premium Delhi to Kedarnath packages include VIP darshan passes, which allow priority queue entry and a closer, longer darshan of the Kedarnath Shiva Linga. These VIP passes are arranged by tour operators in advance. Budget packages generally cover regular general darshan, which may involve a longer wait time.

6. Bangalore to Kedarnath Package

Q1: How do I travel from Bangalore to Kedarnath?

A: The most common route from Bangalore to Kedarnath is by flight from Bengaluru (Kempegowda International Airport) to Dehradun (Jolly Grant Airport), followed by a road journey via Rishikesh, Rudraprayag, Guptkashi, Sonprayag, and Gaurikund. The final 16-18 km is covered by trek, pony, or helicopter.

Q2: What is the cost of a Bangalore to Kedarnath package?

A: Bangalore to Kedarnath packages typically range from Rs.18,000-Rs.35,000 per person for a 7-8 day trip, including flights to Dehradun, ground transfers, accommodation, meals, and trek assistance. Premium helicopter packages from Bangalore can cost Rs.40,000-Rs.70,000+ per person including flights and all inclusions.

Q3: How many days is a Bangalore to Kedarnath package?

A: A Bangalore to Kedarnath package ideally spans 7-9 days: Day 1 - Bangalore to Dehradun (flight); Days 2-3 - Dehradun to Guptkashi; Day 4 - Guptkashi to Gaurikund; Day 5 - Kedarnath Trek and Darshan; Day 6 - Return to Guptkashi; Days 7-8 - Guptkashi to Dehradun; Day 9 - Fly back to Bangalore.

Q4: Which airlines fly from Bangalore to Dehradun for Kedarnath Yatra?

A: IndiGo, Air India, SpiceJet, and Vistara (now merged with Air India) operate flights from Bengaluru (BLR) to Dehradun (DED). Flights are typically 2-2.5 hours. Booking flights 6-8 weeks in advance is recommended to get affordable fares, especially during peak pilgrim season (May-June, September-October).

Q5: Is there a train from Bangalore to reach Kedarnath?

A: Yes, you can take a train from Bangalore (KSR or Yesvantpur station) to Haridwar or Dehradun Junction. However, train journeys are extremely long (30-40+ hours) and are generally not preferred by most pilgrims. The recommended option is a flight to Dehradun followed by road travel to the trek base.

Q6: What is the best season to book a Bangalore to Kedarnath package?

A: The best seasons are May-June (pre-monsoon) and September-October (post-monsoon). May-June offers clear skies and pleasant trekking weather. September-October is less crowded and equally beautiful with clear mountain views. Avoid July-August due to monsoon rains and frequent landslides on the mountain roads.

Q7: Are group departure packages available from Bangalore to Kedarnath?

A: Yes, many Bangalore-based travel agencies offer group departure packages starting from Bangalore. These shared cost packages typically cost Rs.18,000-Rs.28,000 per person for a 7-8 day trip including flights, accommodation, meals, and guided trek. Popular departure dates coincide with long weekends and school holidays.

Q8: What are the top tour operators offering Bangalore to Kedarnath packages?

A: Reputable operators include Thomas Cook India, SOTC, Kesari Tours, Make My Trip holiday packages, and several specialized Uttarakhand pilgrimage operators. Always verify IATA registration, check Google Reviews (4.0+ rating), compare itineraries carefully, and confirm exact inclusions and exclusions before booking any package.

Q9: Can I customize a Bangalore to Kedarnath package with Badrinath?

A: Yes, many operators offer combined Char Dham Yatra packages from Bangalore covering Kedarnath Temple, Badrinath Temple, Gangotri Temple, and Yamunotri Temple. These packages typically span 12–14 days and cost around Rs.35,000–Rs.70,000 per person from Bangalore including flights. You can also opt for a Do Dham package covering just Kedarnath and Badrinath. For Kedarnath Yatra booking or travel assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q10: What should I carry specifically when traveling from Bangalore to Kedarnath?

A: Carry a heavy down jacket and thermal innerwear (temperatures at Kedarnath can drop to 0 degrees C even in summer), altitude sickness pills (Diamox - consult your doctor), a valid ID, yatra registration slip, extra cash (Rs.5,000-Rs.8,000), quality trekking shoes, a universal travel adapter, basic first-aid kit, and high-energy snacks.

7. Kedarnath Tour Package from Pune

Q1: How do I travel from Pune to Kedarnath?

A: From Pune, the most practical route is by flight from Pune International Airport to Dehradun (Jolly Grant Airport), often via Delhi or Mumbai. From Dehradun, a road journey takes you through Rishikesh, Rudraprayag, Guptkashi, and Gaurikund. Alternatively, a train from Pune to Haridwar followed by road transport is an affordable option.

Q2: What is the cost of a Kedarnath tour package from Pune?

A: Kedarnath tour packages from Pune typically cost Rs.15,000-Rs.30,000 per person for 7-8 days, including flights to Dehradun, accommodation, meals, and trekking support. Premium packages with helicopter rides range from Rs.40,000-Rs.65,000. Budget train + road packages start at Rs.10,000-Rs.14,000 per person.

Q3: What is the best way to reach Kedarnath from Pune?

A: The fastest option is a Pune-Dehradun flight (via Delhi/Mumbai, approximately 3-4 hours including layover), followed by road travel to Gaurikund (8-10 hours). A more budget-friendly option is the Pune-Haridwar Express train (approximately 30-35 hours), followed by a road journey to Gaurikund (5-6 hours).

Q4: Are there group tour packages from Pune to Kedarnath?

A: Yes, many Pune-based tour operators and pilgrimage organizers offer group departure packages for Kedarnath from Pune. These packages are usually scheduled on fixed departure dates and include transportation (flight or train + road), accommodation, meals, guides, and complete yatra assistance to the sacred Kedarnath Temple. Group packages from Pune typically cost Rs.12,000–Rs.25,000 per person depending on travel type and services included. For Kedarnath Yatra booking or travel assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q5: How many days is recommended for a Kedarnath tour package from Pune?

A: Given the long-distance travel from Pune, a minimum 7-day itinerary is recommended: Day 1 - Pune to Dehradun (flight/train); Days 2-3 - Dehradun/Rishikesh to Guptkashi; Day 4 - Guptkashi to Gaurikund; Day 5 - Kedarnath Trek and Darshan; Day 6 - Gaurikund to Rishikesh; Day 7 - Rishikesh to Dehradun, fly to Pune.

Q6: Which is the best time to book a Kedarnath tour from Pune?

A: The best season is May-June or September-October. Post-Diwali (October-November), the temple closes for winter. Booking 2-3 months in advance from Pune is advised for securing affordable flights and accommodation. Avoid booking during heavy monsoon months (July-August) due to road blockages and safety concerns.

Q7: Is there a Pune to Haridwar direct train for Kedarnath Yatra?

A: The Pune–Haridwar Express runs from Pune Junction to Haridwar and is a popular choice for budget-conscious pilgrims. The journey takes approximately 30–34 hours. From Haridwar, shared jeeps, buses, and taxis connect to Sonprayag / Gaurikund (about 220 km, 7–8 hours by road). For Kedarnath Yatra booking or travel assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q8: Do Pune to Kedarnath packages cover travel insurance?

A: Some mid-range and premium Kedarnath packages from Pune include travel insurance, which covers trip cancellations, medical emergencies, accident coverage, and helicopter evacuation. Always check whether insurance is included in the package. If not, buy a separate travel insurance policy covering mountain treks before your departure.

Q9: Can I book a Kedarnath helicopter package from Pune?

A: Yes, Pune-based travel agencies offer helicopter Kedarnath packages. These include flights from Pune to Dehradun, road transfer to Phata/Sirsi helipad, helicopter ride to Kedarnath, darshan, and return. These packages are priced at Rs.40,000-Rs.65,000 per person for 6-7 days and must be booked well in advance.

Q10: Are Char Dham packages from Pune that include Kedarnath available?

A: Yes, many Pune operators offer Char Dham Yatra packages including Kedarnath, Badrinath, Gangotri, and Yamunotri. These run for 12-14 days and are priced at Rs.40,000-Rs.80,000 per person from Pune including flights. Shorter Do Dham packages (Kedarnath + Badrinath) are available for 8-10 days at Rs.25,000-Rs.45,000.

8. Kedarnath Online Booking

Q1: How do I do Kedarnath yatra registration online?

A: Visit the official Uttarakhand Char Dham Devasthanam Board website or the government's Char Dham Yatra portal. Click on 'New Registration', fill in personal details (name, age, address, ID number), upload a passport-size photo, select your preferred darshan date, complete OTP verification of your mobile number, and pay the nominal registration fee.

Q2: What is the official website for Kedarnath online booking?

A: The official Kedarnath Yatra registration portal is managed by the Uttarakhand Government through the Char Dham Devasthanam Board portal. For helicopter tickets to the sacred Kedarnath Temple, the IRCTC HeliYatra website is the safest and most reliable official booking source. Pilgrims are strongly advised to use only these government-authorized platforms to avoid fraud or unofficial agents. For Kedarnath Yatra package booking or travel assistance, you can also call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q3: Can I book a Kedarnath package on MakeMyTrip or Goibibo?

A: Yes, MakeMyTrip, Goibibo, Cleartrip, and Yatra.com all offer Kedarnath holiday packages. These packages include flight/train booking, accommodation, and sometimes guided trek assistance. However, the mandatory yatra registration must be done separately on the official government portal. These OTA platforms are convenient for bundled bookings.

Q4: Is Kedarnath helicopter booking available online?

A: Yes. Kedarnath helicopter bookings are available on the IRCTC HeliYatra portal, which is the officially authorized platform for flights to Kedarnath Temple. Private helicopter operators like Pawan Hans and Aryan Aviation also provide booking options through their official websites. Pilgrims are advised to always prefer official channels rather than agents to avoid fraud. For Kedarnath Yatra package booking or travel assistance, you can also call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q5: What payment methods are accepted for Kedarnath online booking?

A: Most official Kedarnath booking portals and travel websites accept all major payment methods including credit/debit cards (Visa, Mastercard, RuPay), net banking, UPI (Google Pay, PhonePe, Paytm), and EMI options on eligible credit cards. Ensure you receive an official booking confirmation email and SMS immediately after payment.

Q6: What if I don't receive a confirmation after Kedarnath online booking?

A: If you do not receive a confirmation email/SMS within 30 minutes, check your spam folder, verify if the payment was deducted, and log into your booking portal account to check status. If payment was deducted but no confirmation received, contact the portal's customer support or helpline immediately with your transaction reference number.

Q7: Can I reschedule my Kedarnath booking online?

A: Yes, the Char Dham Devasthanam Board portal allows online rescheduling of your darshan slot subject to availability. Log in with your registered mobile number, go to 'Manage Booking', and select a new available date. Helicopter tickets through IRCTC can also be rescheduled, though the policy varies by operator and date proximity.

Q8: Are there any authorized apps for Kedarnath online booking?

A: The Uttarakhand Devasthanam Board and Char Dham Yatra have official mobile apps available on the Google Play Store and Apple App Store for yatra registration. For helicopter bookings to the sacred Kedarnath Temple, IRCTC also provides an official app. Pilgrims should be cautious of fake apps or third-party booking platforms that may charge extra fees or run fraudulent operations. For Kedarnath Yatra package booking or travel assistance, you can also call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q9: How do I download my Kedarnath yatra pass after online booking?

A: After successful online registration, log into the booking portal with your registered mobile number or user ID, navigate to your booking history, and download the yatra registration pass as a PDF. Print or save it digitally on your phone. The pass contains a QR code that is scanned at multiple checkpoints along the yatra route.

Q10: What are common mistakes to avoid during Kedarnath online booking?

A: Avoid entering incorrect ID numbers or names that don't match your government ID. Do not book through unofficial websites or WhatsApp-based agents. Do not pay in advance without getting a written receipt. Verify the travel date carefully before confirming. Always use the official portals and save screenshots of payment confirmations as proof.

9. Kedarnath Trek Package

Q1: What is included in a Kedarnath trek package?

A: A standard Kedarnath trek package includes accommodation (tents or guesthouses) along the trail, meals (typically breakfast and dinner), a certified mountain guide, porter/pony option, first-aid support, safety briefing, yatra registration assistance, and transport to and from the trek starting point at Gaurikund. Some packages also include trekking poles and sleeping bags.

Q2: How difficult is the Kedarnath trek?

A: The trek to the sacred Kedarnath Temple is rated easy to moderate in difficulty. The 16–18 km route from Gaurikund to Kedarnath involves a steady climb through mountain terrain. The most challenging section is the steep ascent near Lincholi. The high altitude (reaching about 3,583 meters) is the primary challenge, but most reasonably fit adults can complete the trek in 5–8 hours. For Kedarnath Yatra booking or travel assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q3: What is the cost of a Kedarnath trek package?

A: Kedarnath trek packages range from Rs.3,500-Rs.8,000 per person for basic 2-day trek options from Gaurikund. Complete trek packages from Haridwar or Rishikesh including travel cost Rs.8,000-Rs.18,000 for 5-7 days. Premium guided trek packages with camping experience and equipment cost Rs.15,000-Rs.25,000 per person.

Q4: What is the best time for the Kedarnath trek?

A: The best trekking months are May-June and September-October. In May-June, the trail is covered in wildflowers and the weather is relatively stable. September-October offers clear skies, fewer crowds, and stunning views of snow-capped peaks. Avoid July-August due to heavy monsoon rains that make the trail muddy, slippery, and dangerous.

Q5: How long does the Kedarnath trek take?

A: The Gaurikund to Kedarnath trek (approximately 16 km) takes 5-8 hours one way at a moderate pace. The return journey takes 4-6 hours. Most pilgrims complete the trek in a total of 2 days: upward trek on Day 1 (stay at Kedarnath base), darshan on Day 2 morning, and return to Gaurikund by evening of Day 2.

Q6: Is the Kedarnath trek safe for beginners?

A: Yes, the trek to the sacred Kedarnath Temple is generally safe for beginners as the trail is well-maintained, clearly marked, and lined with tea stalls, rest points, and medical camps. However, beginners should build basic fitness before attempting the trek, start early in the morning (around 5–6 AM), walk at a comfortable pace, stay hydrated, and avoid overexertion at high altitude. For Kedarnath Yatra booking or travel assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q7: What are the stay options along the Kedarnath trek route?

A: Stay options along the route include: Jungle Chatti (basic lodges), Bheem Bali (guesthouses and GMVN camps), Lincholi (basic shelters and tents), Kedarnath Base Camp (GMVN tourist bungalow, private guesthouses, and tent accommodations). Booking in advance during peak season is strongly recommended as accommodation is limited.

Q8: What should I wear for the Kedarnath trek?

A: Wear moisture-wicking base layers, warm fleece or down jacket (temperatures can drop to 2-5 degrees C), full-length trekking pants, waterproof trekking boots with ankle support, woolen socks, gloves, and a warm hat. Carry a good quality rain poncho or waterproof jacket as the weather can change quickly in the mountains.

Q9: Are there guided Kedarnath trek packages available?

A: Yes, certified guided Kedarnath trek packages are offered by numerous operators based in Rishikesh, Haridwar, and Dehradun. Guides are trained in mountain first aid, route navigation, and local pilgrimage etiquette. A guide ensures safety, helps manage altitude-related health issues, and enhances the spiritual experience through contextual knowledge.

Q10: What is the altitude gain during the Kedarnath trek?

A: The Kedarnath trek starts at Gaurikund at an altitude of approximately 1,982 meters (6,499 feet) and ends at Kedarnath Temple at 3,583 meters (11,755 feet). The total altitude gain is approximately 1,600 meters over 16-18 km. Gradual acclimatization and a slow, steady pace are key to managing this altitude gain safely.

10. Haridwar to Kedarnath Tour Package

Q1: What is the distance from Haridwar to Kedarnath?

A: The road distance from Haridwar to Gaurikund (Kedarnath trek base) is approximately 245-270 km, which takes 7-9 hours by road. The route passes through Rishikesh, Devprayag, Srinagar (Garhwal), Rudraprayag, and Guptkashi. From Gaurikund, the 16-18 km trek brings you to Kedarnath Temple.

Q2: What is the cost of a Haridwar to Kedarnath tour package?

A: Haridwar to Kedarnath packages start from Rs.4,500-Rs.7,000 per person for a basic 3-4 day trip. Mid-range packages with better accommodation and private transport cost Rs.9,000-Rs.16,000. Premium helicopter packages from Haridwar range from Rs.18,000-Rs.35,000 per person for a 4-5 day complete experience.

Q3: How many days is the Haridwar to Kedarnath tour package?

A: A 4-day Kedarnath package is the most popular: Day 1 – Haridwar to Guptkashi (240 km, 8 hrs); Day 2 – Guptkashi to Gaurikund and start the trek to the sacred Kedarnath Temple base camp; Day 3 – Kedarnath darshan and return to Gaurikund; Day 4 – Gaurikund to Haridwar. A 5-day option adds an extra day for sightseeing at Guptkashi or Ukhimath. For Kedarnath Yatra booking or travel assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q4: What are the travel options from Haridwar to Kedarnath?

A: Options include government buses (GMOU/Uttarakhand Roadways) from Haridwar bus stand to Guptkashi/Sonprayag (Rs.300-Rs.600, 8-10 hours), shared taxis/jeeps (Rs.500-Rs.800), private taxis (Rs.3,500-Rs.5,000 for the whole vehicle), and helicopter from Phata/Sirsi near Guptkashi (Rs.3,500-Rs.5,500 per person one way).

Q5: What sightseeing is included in Haridwar to Kedarnath packages?

A: Most packages include Har Ki Pauri Ganga Aarti (Haridwar), Devprayag Sangam view (confluence of Alaknanda and Bhagirathi rivers), Triyuginarayan Temple (wedding site of Lord Shiva and Parvati), Gaurikund temple, and the Kedarnath Shrine itself. Extended packages add Ukhimath, Chopta (Mini Switzerland), and Tungnath Temple.

Q6: Are budget dormitory packages available from Haridwar to Kedarnath?

A: Yes, budget dormitory packages from Haridwar to Kedarnath are offered by ashrams, dharamshalas, and yatra operators at around Rs.3,000-Rs.5,500 per person for 3-4 days. These include shared accommodation (dormitory beds), vegetarian meals, bus transport, and basic trek support. Ideal for solo travelers and pilgrims on a tight budget.

Q7: Can I hire a private taxi from Haridwar to Kedarnath base?

A: Yes, private taxis such as Innova, Xylo, or Tempo Traveller can be hired from Haridwar to Sonprayag or Gaurikund for approximately Rs.4,000–Rs.7,000 per vehicle one way. For groups of 4–8 people, sharing a Tempo Traveller (around Rs.7,000–Rs.12,000) is a comfortable and economical option. Make sure the taxi driver has a valid hill driving permit for mountain routes. For Kedarnath Yatra booking or travel assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q8: Is the Haridwar to Kedarnath road journey safe?

A: The road journey from Haridwar to Gaurikund passes through narrow mountain roads with sharp bends, especially after Rudraprayag. It is generally safe during the yatra season (May-November) on fair weather days. Travel during daylight hours, avoid night driving on mountain roads, and check road conditions before departure especially during and after rains.

Q9: What is the nearest railway station to Kedarnath for those coming from Haridwar?

A: Haridwar Railway Station is a major railhead well connected to many major cities across India and is the most common starting point for road travel to the sacred Kedarnath Temple. Rishikesh Railway Station, located about 24 km from Haridwar, is another nearby option, although it has fewer direct trains. Both locations are convenient gateways to begin the road journey toward Kedarnath. For Kedarnath Yatra booking or travel assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q10: Are there any important tips for the Haridwar to Kedarnath road journey?

A: Start early from Haridwar (by 4-5 AM) to avoid traffic and reach Gaurikund by afternoon. Carry motion sickness medicine for the winding mountain roads. Refuel your vehicle at Srinagar (Garhwal) or Rudraprayag as fuel stations beyond are sparse. Carry light snacks, water, and a first-aid kit. Check landslide advisories before departure.

11. Kedarnath Yatra Booking

Q1: How do I book Kedarnath Yatra for 2024 or 2025?

A: Kedarnath Yatra booking is done through the official Char Dham Devasthanam Board portal or authorized travel agents. Registration opens a few months before the temple opening date (usually late April/early May). Create an account on the official portal, submit personal details and ID proof, select a darshan date, and complete payment for the registration slip.

Q2: What is the procedure for Kedarnath Yatra booking?

A: Step 1 – Visit the official yatra registration portal for the sacred Kedarnath Temple.
Step 2 – Register using your mobile number and email ID.
Step 3 – Fill in pilgrim details such as name, age, gender, and ID number.
Step 4 – Upload a recent passport-size photograph.
Step 5 – Select your preferred darshan date and time slot.
Step 6 – Complete OTP verification and pay the registration fee.
Step 7 – Download and print your yatra pass for verification during the journey.

For Kedarnath Yatra booking or travel assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q3: Can I book Kedarnath Yatra through a travel agent?

A: Yes, many IATA-registered and government-approved travel agents can assist with Kedarnath Yatra booking, including yatra registration, accommodation reservations, transport arrangements, helicopter bookings, and porter/pony coordination. Always use registered agents and demand an official receipt for all payments made to them.

Q4: Is group booking available for Kedarnath Yatra?

A: Yes, group bookings for Kedarnath Yatra are available for families, friends, or corporate groups. On the official portal, you can register multiple pilgrims under a single group booking. Travel agents also specialize in group yatra packages with customized itineraries, bulk discounts on accommodation, and dedicated group coordinators.

Q5: Can NRIs or foreign nationals book Kedarnath Yatra?

A: Yes, NRIs and foreign nationals can register for Kedarnath Yatra. They need to provide their passport number as ID proof, along with a valid Indian visa. The registration process is the same as for Indian nationals. Foreign nationals are advised to purchase comprehensive travel insurance covering high-altitude medical emergencies and evacuation.

Q6: What is the Kedarnath VIP darshan booking process?

A: VIP darshan passes for the sacred Kedarnath Temple allow priority temple entry and a closer, longer view of the Kedarnath Jyotirlinga. These can be booked through the Char Dham Devasthanam Board portal or via authorized puja agents. VIP passes typically cost Rs.1,500–Rs.3,000 per person, and availability is limited, so it is advisable to book early, especially during the peak pilgrimage season. For Kedarnath Yatra booking or travel assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571. 🙏

Q7: What if the Kedarnath Yatra booking portal is unavailable?

A: If the official portal is temporarily down, try booking during off-peak hours (early morning or late night), clear browser cache, or try an alternate browser. You can also visit physical registration centers at Haridwar, Rishikesh, Guptkashi, or Sonprayag for walk-in registration. Contact the Devasthanam Board helpline for technical support.

Q8: Can I book accommodation at Kedarnath base camp online?

A: Yes, GMVN (Garhwal Mandal Vikas Nigam) offers online booking for its tourist rest houses and tent accommodations at Kedarnath base camp through the GMVN official website. Private guesthouses and ashrams at Kedarnath also accept advance bookings. All accommodations fill up quickly during peak season so book 4-6 weeks ahead.

Q9: What is the cancellation policy for Kedarnath Yatra booking?

A: The cancellation policy for yatra registration (government portal) typically allows cancellation up to 48-72 hours before the darshan date with a partial refund. Helicopter ticket cancellations are governed by individual operator policies and are usually non-refundable within 24 hours. Hotel and accommodation cancellation policies vary by property.

Q10: What is the best platform to book a complete Kedarnath Yatra package?

A: For a complete package (transport + accommodation + darshan), reputable platforms include MakeMyTrip, Thomas Cook India, SOTC, Kesari Tours, and specialized Uttarakhand pilgrimage operators. For only yatra registration, use the official government portal. For helicopter, use IRCTC heliyatra. Always compare 3-4 packages before confirming your booking.

12. Kedarnath Yatra Tour Package

Q1: What does a complete Kedarnath Yatra tour package include?

A: A complete Kedarnath Yatra tour package includes round-trip transport (train/flight/road), accommodation at all stops (Haridwar/Rishikesh, Guptkashi, Kedarnath base), all meals (breakfast and dinner), yatra registration assistance, a certified local guide, porter/pony/palki/helicopter options for the trek, VIP darshan pass, and 24/7 traveler support.

Q2: What are the different types of Kedarnath Yatra tour packages available?

A: Available package types for visiting the sacred Kedarnath Temple include Budget Group Packages (shared transport and accommodation, Rs.5,000–Rs.10,000), Private Packages (exclusive vehicle and rooms, Rs.15,000–Rs.30,000), Helicopter Packages (including chopper ride, Rs.25,000–Rs.60,000), Senior Citizen Packages (pony/palki with priority services), and Char Dham Combo Packages (Rs.35,000–Rs.80,000 covering all four dhams). For Kedarnath Yatra booking or travel assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q3: Is GST applicable on Kedarnath Yatra tour packages?

A: Yes, GST is applicable on tour packages at 5% for packages where accommodation is included. If you book transport and accommodation separately, different GST rates may apply. Always ask your tour operator for a GST-inclusive price quote to avoid surprise charges. Ensure the operator provides a proper GST invoice for your booking.

Q4: Can I get a refund if Kedarnath temple is closed due to bad weather?

A: Yes, most tour operators have contingency policies for weather-related temple closures. Reputable operators either reschedule your trip to the next available date at no extra cost or provide a partial refund for unused services. Ensure you read the force majeure and weather delay clause in your package terms very carefully before booking.

Q5: What is a senior citizen Kedarnath Yatra package?

A: Senior citizen Kedarnath Yatra packages are specially designed for elderly pilgrims (60+ years). They include slower-paced itineraries, mandatory palki or helicopter for the trek, doctor/medical assistant accompaniment, availability of oxygen cylinders along the route, premium accommodation with lift access, and dedicated customer support staff throughout.

Q6: Are Kedarnath Yatra packages available for families with children?

A: Yes, family-friendly Kedarnath Yatra packages are available for pilgrims visiting the sacred Kedarnath Temple. These packages usually include pony rides for children, comfortable private vehicles, child-friendly meals, extra medical precautions, and age-appropriate travel guidance. Children below 5 years old are generally advised to take the helicopter service instead of completing the full trek for better safety and comfort. For Kedarnath Yatra booking or travel assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571.

Q7: How do I compare Kedarnath Yatra tour packages?

A: Compare packages on these key parameters: total cost per person, inclusions vs. exclusions, quality of accommodation (star-rated vs. basic), transport type (private vs. shared), mode of trekking support (pony/palki/helicopter), guide quality, operator reputation and reviews, cancellation and refund policy, and emergency support protocol.

Q8: Which is the most popular Kedarnath Yatra tour package?

A: The most popular choice is a 5-6 day Kedarnath + Badrinath Do Dham package from Haridwar or Delhi, priced at Rs.12,000-Rs.25,000 per person. This package covers both the most visited Char Dham destinations and provides good value for time-conscious pilgrims who cannot take a full 12-14 day Char Dham Yatra.

Q9: Do Kedarnath Yatra tour packages cover travel insurance?

A: Premium packages for visiting the sacred Kedarnath Temple usually include basic travel insurance, while budget packages often do not. It is strongly recommended to purchase a separate travel insurance policy that covers trip cancellations, medical emergencies, high-altitude rescue, and helicopter evacuation (which can cost Rs.1–2 lakhs without insurance). Insurance is especially important due to the challenging mountain terrain and weather conditions. For Kedarnath Yatra booking or travel assistance, you can call or WhatsApp 9259810571. 🙏

Q10: How early should I book a Kedarnath Yatra tour package?

A: Book at least 2-4 months in advance for peak season travel (May-June, September-October). For helicopter Kedarnath packages, book 3-5 months ahead as slots are very limited. Last-minute packages are available but costlier with limited accommodation choices. For school/summer vacation periods, early booking is absolutely essential.

Plan your sacred journey to the divine Kedarnath Temple with our affordable Kedarnath Yatra Package starting from just ₹5000. This package is designed to give pilgrims a smooth and comfortable travel experience with proper guidance, travel assistance, and stay arrangements so you can focus on your spiritual journey and enjoy the peaceful beauty of the Himalayas. Thousands of devotees visit Kedarnath every year to seek the blessings of Lord Shiva, and with the right travel plan your yatra becomes much easier and memorable.

👉 Book Your Kedarnath Yatra Package Now

🌐 Visit Our Website : Ghoomo Saste Me

📞 Call : 9259810571

💬 WhatsApp: 9259810571
📻 Follow us on Instagram: Ghoomo Saste Me

✍️ Limited seats available – Contact us today and start your divine Kedarnath journey. 🙏

Resources:

Makemytrip - https://www.makemytrip.com/holidays-india/kedarnath-packages-from-mumbai.html

ghoomo saste me - https://www.ghoomosasteme.com/destinations/kedarnath

Wikipedia - https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Kedarnath